

PANSHANGER PARK, LAFARGE TARMAC

BIODIVERSITY ENHANCEMENT OVERVIEW

Employment of a dedicated People and Wildlife Officer to interact with visitors to the park, lead wildlife tours and organise volunteer work parties for scrub clearance, habitat creation etc.

Following the enhancements included in the project:

- Engaging with the local community
- Education and interpretation opportunities for all age groups and abilities interested in this new country park and nature reserve.
- Volunteering opportunities
- Establishment, maintenance and enhancement of habitats for otter, tern, dragonflies/damselflies and many other species

Pictures of the enhancement

Fact box

Company name:

Lafarge Tarmac

Project name:

Panshanger Park

Location:

Hertfordshire

Biodiversity enhancement:

- Creation of habitats for otter, tern, dragonflies / damselflies and many other species
- Local community engagement

Size:

N/A

Cost:

N/A

Tips:

Providing proactive opportunities for local individuals, groups and communities to learn about and contribute to the development of biodiversity and creation/enhancement of habitats encourages respect for the environment and a long term interest in protecting and caring for it.

Year completed:

2014

Categories:

- Community engagement